The Truth About Budgeting

Myth: I do not have time to develop a budget.

Truth: You do not have time NOT to.

The dreaded “B” word, BUDGET.

The only other word that starts with “B” that will cause a worse reaction in most people is Bankruptcy.

Budgeting is NOT Bad

Unfortunately, the word budget has gotten a bad rap. It is basically just a PLAN. When you budget, you are spending on paper, on purpose BEFORE the month begins. Many people look at budgeting as a negative, burdensome straight jacket that keeps them tied down. The words, “financial freedom” and “budget” don’t seem to go together.

Budgeting is Freedom

When you realize that a budget is just spending your money with intention, you can actually experience more freedom than before. Many people find they have more money when they follow a realistic budget, track their expenses, and stick with it.

Helpful Advice

- Allow 3-4 months for the budget to really work for you. Nothing is perfect the first time you do it.
- Spend every dime on paper BEFORE the month starts.
- Over-fund your groceries category. Most people under-fund it.
- Spouses need to loosen up and quit using the budget as a whipping tool on their mates.

If married, both spouses need to discuss the budget together if they expect to have a healthy financial relationship.

Regain Control

When you spend your money on purpose, you are on your way to Regaining Control of Your Personal Finances.
